NZ ONLY:

If no-one is home when Fastways calls, the driver will leave a card with relevant contact info. You can over-ride this at your own risk with a delivery instruction such as: 'Please leave on porch if no-one home.' While this has not been a problem in the past, please sign below if this applies. I understand that agreeing to have wine left at my specified address without a signature of receipt is at my own risk:

AUSTRALIA: Wine must be signed for on delivery
